Why attend?

Sport often dominates the headlines, but the new stories seem to focus more on financial, legal, disciplinary and ethical issues than performance on the field. This conference brings together leading experts in sports law, regulation and tax to discuss current issues in the sporting world. It is an ideal opportunity for you to gain practical solutions and guidance on the fast moving area of sports law and will be chaired by Howard Stupp from the International Olympic Committee.

Who should attend?

Lawyers and managers working in sport or on sports related cases, Intellectual property and media lawyers, Sports agents and promoters, Tax advisers to high net worth individuals, Sponsorship managers, Social and digital media advisers.
